Notes: Northern Light Home Care & Hospice has two primary service lines, home care and hospice. These services are provided in the patient's place of residence. Home care services are provided to those recovering from illness or surgery by nurses, rehabilitation therapists (physical, speech and occupational), medical social workers and home health aides.

Hospice services are provided by a team of specially trained clinicians to those seeking end of life care. Hospice services also include trained volunteers, and bereavement and spiritual counseling. Three other programs augment our primary services: palliative care, telehealth (remote daily monitoring of vital signs) and LiveSafe (an emergency response program), are designed for those managing chronic illnesses.

Caring Calls is a free program for those who might benefit from a daily phone call from a friendly volunteer. Northern Light Home Care & Hospice has a pool of volunteers who staff the phones Monday through Friday from 8am to 9:30am to greet participants at an assigned time. The goal is to brighten the day of someone who could benefit from a phone call. To ensure patient safety, there are protocols in place for those times when a volunteer is unable to reach a participant. Just give us a call at 207-973-7848 or northernlightcaringcalls@northernlight.org. Serving Cumberland, York, Kennebec, Somerset, Penobscot, Hancock, and Aroostook Counties.
